The 147th Stated Meeting of the Presbytery of Middle Tennessee met via Zoom on Saturday, February 5, 2022. Stated Clerk Therese Howell provided Zoom tips and information for first time commissioners. Moderator Chris Joiner called the meeting to order at 9:30 am.

WORSHIP

Worship was led by Leonard Jordan, Commissioned Pastor of St. Andrews Presbyterian Church, Nashville. Elder Jordan preached the sermon, and 2022 Moderator, Cristi Scott Ligon (St. Andrews Presbyterian Church, Nashville), and Vice-Moderator Rev. Stephen Yates (First Presbyterian Church, Tullahoma), were installed to office during worship. The sanctuary of St. Andrews Presbyterian Church was filled with people in support of the 2022 Moderator. The offering was collected for the Matthew 25 Food Bank.

DECLARATION OF QUORUM / RECOGNITION OF 2021 MODERATOR / STATEMENT OF PROCEDURES / FIRST TIME COMMISSIONERS / STANDING RULES / CORRESPONDING MEMBERS

After a break, Moderator Scott Ligon reconvened the meeting and declared a quorum was present. Co-Executive Presbyters Robin and Ray Thomas presented a gift for travel to 2021 Moderator Chris Joiner, as well as a gift of a hand turned bowl for Kim Joiner, for all her work leading the Presbytery in Zoom meetings in 2020 and 2021.

The Moderator reviewed procedures for the meeting. Robert's Rules of Order, Newly Revised (11th Edition), the parliamentary authority for councils of the Presbyterian Church (U.S.A.), states electronic meetings must be properly authorized in the council's bylaws. The Presbytery of Middle Tennessee's bylaws, the Mission and Operations Manual, does not allow the presbytery to meet electronically. The Moderator stated it was not possible to meet in person to amend the manual to allow electronic meetings. The motion was made, seconded, and approved by the required three-fourths vote of commissioners to set aside the standing rules to allow the electronic meeting as well as receive the supplemental materials and additional item of business.

The Moderator welcomed first time commissioners, and introduced the newest pastors, Rev. Mark David Calvert-Rosenberger, who is serving as temporary pastor at First Presbyterian Church, Springfield, and Rev. Walt Tennyson, a chaplain at St. Thomas Nashville.

The Presbytery's Mission and Operations Manual and the Book of Order provide for the seating of corresponding members and teaching and ruling elders with voice and those with voice and vote. Any ruling elder serving as presbytery's Moderator, Vice-Moderator, Moderator-in-Nomination, chairs of committees, members of the Administrative Committee, members of the Finance Committee, and the Moderator of Presbyterian Women, are enrolled as members of presbytery and shall have voice and vote. Ruling elders commissioned to particular pastoral service, and ruling elders who have previously served as presbytery moderator, within five years of completion of his/her term of service, are enrolled as members of presbytery with voice and vote. Any ruling elder serving as a committee representative to a particular meeting of presbytery in the absence of the chair shall have the privilege of voice and vote for that particular meeting of the presbytery. Persons certified in church service who are ruling elders shall have the privilege of voice and vote at all meetings of the presbytery, during their term of service in ministry in the presbytery of Middle Tennessee. Persons certified in church service, who are members of congregations in the Presbytery of Middle Tennessee, shall have the privilege of voice at all meetings of the presbytery during their term of service in a congregation or other ministry validated by the presbytery. Should a question arise concerning the enrollment of any person, the presbytery may resolve the matter upon the recommendation of the Permanent Judicial Commission. Corresponding members were seated without objection, and are listed with the roll.

The Manual will be presented for approval at the May Presbytery meeting, and churches will be encouraged to send the same commissioners to the February and May Presbytery meetings. Vacancies

The Administrative Committee recommended that the following persons be elected to fill terms as indicated:

Finance Committee, Class of 2023:

Bruce McVey, First Fayetteville

Comm. on Church Transformation, Class of 2023: Ken Diehl, First Tullahoma
Committee on Ministry, Class of 2022 Mark Mueller, The Outreach Foundation
225th General Assembly, Alternate Teaching Elder: C. J. Thompson, First Manchester
225th Alternate Ruling Elder: Judy Venable, Calvary Crossville

Rev. Yates reported that the Presbytery had sent three teaching and three ruling elders as commissioners to the General Assembly, but the Presbytery's membership had dropped below 16,000, so the Presbytery is only able to send two teaching and two ruling elder commissioners. Rev. C.J. Thompson had been elected as a commissioner, but agreed to serve as an alternate. Elder Kathy Nichols had been elected as a ruling elder commissioner, but she has moved out of the bounds of the Presbytery. Elder Judy Venable (Calvary Presbyterian Church, Crossville), agreed to serve as an alternate. Rev. Yates also reported that Rev. Mark Mueller, Executive Director of The Outreach Foundation, had agreed to serve on the Committee on Ministry, but his name was inadvertently left off the Administrative Committee report.

The Moderator opened the floor for additional nominations, and there were none. The slate, as presented, was elected.

FINANCE COMMITTEE REPORT

Ruling Elder Steve Douse, Treasurer and chair of the Finance Committee, presented the committee's report.

Financial Reports

Financial reports and investment results as of December 31, 2021, were provided with the Presbytery packet. Mr. Douse spoke briefly about the reports.

Finance Committee Meetings

The Finance Committee meets by Zoom at 11:30 on the third Thursday of each month (immediately preceding the Administrative Committee meeting at 12:40), unless that date conflicts with a stated meeting of Presbytery, in which case the committee meets a week earlier.

Anders Hall will continue to head Presbytery's Investment Task Force, which reports to the Finance Committee. Evelyn Graham and Vance Lahey are the other members of the Task Force. The committee also assigned members to its Budget, Property, and Stewardship Working Groups.

Revised Remittance Form

The Finance Committee is preparing a revised remittance form to be used by churches when submitting contributions and other funds to Presbytery.

Guatemala Task Force / Presbytery of Peten Q'eqchi Presbytery

The Presbytery of Middle Tennessee has for years maintained a relationship with the Peten Q'eqchi Presbytery in Guatemala. Through Presbytery's Guatemala Task Force, it has raised money that is used to send mission teams to the Peten and to provide direct financial support to churches in Guatemala. Although this money is raised and the mission teams are recruited and operate under the auspices of this Presbytery, the Task Force has historically operated autonomously. Funds are raised and disbursed by the Task Force, and participants are recruited and sent on mission trips, with little or no oversight by anyone outside the Task Force.

Because of concerns about financial accountability and about the safety and security of mission teams (and the related potential for financial liability on the part of PMT), the Finance Committee drafted a recommendation for the October stated meeting that the Guatemala mission activities and finances either be spun off to a separate nonprofit entity established for that purpose or that PMT establish a partnership with one of the Presbyterian mission agencies that would provide the kind of expertise and infrastructure needed to conduct our mission activities in Guatemala safely and effectively. However, after meeting with representatives of the Guatemala Task Force, the Finance Committee agreed to hold that recommendation in abeyance until the February meeting to allow the Task Force time to explore options for addressing the Finance Committee's concerns.

With the assistance of Rob Weingartner, former Executive Director of The Outreach Foundation, the Task Force has determined that the Finance Committee's preferred option of partnering with The Outreach Foundation or the Presbyterian Mission Agency is not feasible. Instead, the Task Force has proposed that it be more fully integrated into Presbytery's governing structure, thus allowing for more active oversight and greater financial accountability.

The Finance Committee originally rejected that option because it believed Presbytery lacked the expertise and infrastructure needed to manage foreign missions in a professional manner. However, after working with the Task Force and consulting with Rob Weingartner, the committee has concluded that in-house management of the Guatemala mission could be done in a way that protects both the Presbytery and those who participate in the Guatemala mission trips.

Of the issues raised by the Finance Committee, those dealing with financial accountability are the easiest to resolve. We are willing to work with the Task Force to establish procedures for fund transfers and reporting that will permit us to monitor and verify what happens to money that is sent to Guatemala to support the work of Presbytery's mission partners. The Task Force has itself recognized the need for better financial controls and reporting for those funds, and it has already taken steps in that direction.

Providing for the safety and security of mission trip participants – and the liability that entails – are the harder issues. We recognize that some degree of risk is unavoidable for people participating in a foreign mission. Our concern is ensuring that we have taken all reasonable efforts to reduce and manage that risk. People who go on a mission trip sponsored by this Presbytery are entitled to assume that we have done our due diligence, in conjunction with trusted and responsible local mission partners, to determine that the trip is advisable, that the participants have been well prepared, and that the trip will be planned and managed in a professional manner.

While this is in the first instance the responsibility of the Task Force, which has experienced and well qualified leaders, their decisions must be subject to review by others who are not part of the Task Force and personally invested in its mission. Although the Guatemala Task Force has been subject to nominal oversight by the Committee on Mutual Support, the Finance Committee would strengthen the role of CMS in supervising the work of the Task Force, particularly its funding activities and mission trips. All important decisions involving programs and mission trips should be approved not only by the Committee on Mutual Support, but also the Executive Presbyters.

In addition, we would require all mission trip participants to sign a waiver of liability form approved by CMS and the Finance Committee. CMS has already reviewed and approved two possible waiver forms, and we expect no difficulty in getting agreement on this issue.

A final requirement, to protect Presbytery in case there is liability exposure not covered by a waiver, is that the Guatemala Task Force must obtain and pay for an insurance policy providing protection for Presbytery that is similar in kind to the coverage The Outreach Foundation maintains for its foreign mission activities (allowing for the difference in the scope of activities covered). This must be supplemented by appropriate insurance protection for the individual participants, including a medical evacuation policy. If there are insufficient funds in the Guatemala account when the initial premium is due, we recommend that Presbytery advance the premium, which can then be repaid as the account is replenished.

While it is uncertain if all of these measures can be put into place before the mission trip currently scheduled for early March, the Finance Committee believes we owe it to those who have committed to that trip to try. However, they must understand that these steps are for the protection of all concerned – the missionaries who are going and the presbytery that is sending them. If the trip ends up being cancelled or postponed, that will be unfortunate, but it is preferable to taking shortcuts.

The Finance Committee's specific recommendations are set out below.

The Finance Committee recommended that the Guatemala Task Force continue as a mission of this Presbytery, and that it be authorized to send funds and mission teams to Guatemala in furtherance of this mission, but only on the following conditions:

- a. The Task Force must draft (and subsequently adhere to) procedures for making money transfers to foreign mission partners. These procedures must be approved by the Committee on Mutual Support and the Finance Committee. Disbursements for approved purposes must be made using official vouchers submitted by the Task Force Chair with appropriate documentation and approved by the Chair of CMS and the Executive Presbyters.
- b. The Task Force must report regularly to the Committee on Mutual Support, which is charged with exercising active oversight of its work. The Task Force must submit detailed plans for any mission trips it wishes to undertake, as well as information about proposed funds transfers, to the Committee, and subsequently to the Executive Presbyters, for review and approval. The Committee or the Executive Presbyters may set conditions that must be met before the funds transfer or mission trip takes place, or they may veto it completely.
- c. The Task Force is encouraged to formulate a due diligence checklist that can be used as a template both for those charged with planning mission trips and those who are reviewing those plans.
- d. The Task Force must obtain approval from both the Committee on Mutual Support and the Finance Committee for a waiver of liability form to be signed by all mission trip participants.
- e. The Task Force must procure insurance to protect the Presbytery in connection with mission trips and other activities in Guatemala. The coverage must be similar to that maintained by The Outreach Foundation in connection with its missionary activities and must be approved by the Committee on Mutual Support and the Finance Committee. The Finance Committee is authorized to advance funds to cover the initial premium if necessary, to be repaid from Guatemala funds as that account is replenished. This coverage must be supplemented by insurance purchased by the individual participants, including medical evacuation and crisis response coverage.

After discussion, the recommendation was approved.

First Presbyterian Church, Cookeville / Sale of Property

Mr. Douse reported that First Presbyterian Church, Cookeville, requested permission to sell a lot that was donated to the church, which the church cannot use. There was a contract on the property for $12,500, but the buyer opted not to go forward with the purchase based on problems discovered during the presale inspection. The church intends to put the property back on the market. The Finance Committee recommended that Presbytery approve the sale, and this was approved without objection.
