SECTION 1 INTRODUCTION AND AUTHORITY

Introduction

The Commission on Ministry serves as advisor to teaching elders, ruling elders commissioned to pastoral service, certified Christian educators, sessions, and congregations of the Presbytery. The Commission on Ministry oversees the processes for congregations in transitions in pastoral leadership, and guides sessions seeking temporary pastoral relationships.

Authority

The Presbytery of Middle Tennessee has authorized the Commission on Ministry to fulfill this assigned role in The Book of Order (G-3.0307): Each presbytery shall develop and maintain mechanisms and processes to serve as pastor and counselor to its ministers of the Word and Sacrament, commissioned pastors [also known as commissioned ruling elders], and certified Christian educators of the presbytery; to facilitate the relations between the presbytery and its congregations, ministers of the Word and Sacrament, commissioned pastors, and certified Christian educators; and to settle difficulties on behalf of the presbytery where possible and expedient.

The membership of the Commission on Ministry shall be 18 persons - nine ruling elders and nine teaching elders, no two elders representing the same congregation. Commission on Ministry members shall exercise appropriate confidentiality in the commission's work. The Commission on Ministry may use teaching elders and ruling elders not among its members for service in particular capacities.

The Commission on Ministry is granted authority by the Presbytery to act on its behalf on the following:

- Ordinarily, the Presbytery of Middle Tennessee does not receive a teaching elder seeking membership in the Presbytery as a member-at-large unless the teaching elder is the spouse of a teaching elder being received by the Commission on Ministry for the Presbytery of Middle Tennessee, or a teaching elder pursuing post-graduate study within the bounds of the Presbytery of Middle Tennessee. The Commission on Ministry will review any such request on a case-by-case basis.

SECTION 2

THE WORK OF THE COMMISSION ON MINISTRY

The Commission on Ministry's work is divided into five categories and therefore into five teams and task forces. The team tasked with caring for the people who are members of the presbytery is the Pastoral Care Team. The task force charged with caring for churches as they go through transitions in leadership is the Transitions Team. The task force responsible for examination persons requesting membership in the presbytery is the Examinations Team. The annual review of active ministers - installed, temporary, validated, members-at-large - and commissioned pastors is overseen by the Review Team. The team responsible for the presbytery's connection with churches including times of stress and/or conflict is the Mediation Team.

The Commission on Ministry normally meets monthly and its members are assigned to one or more task forces or teams. The teams meet separately as needed. The teams have chairs who coordinate with the Chair of the Commission on Ministry and with the Executive Presbyter to ensure that the work is being accomplished. In addition to serving on task forces or teams, members of the Commission on Ministry will serve as liaisons to assigned churches. Since some of the work of the Commission on Ministry overlaps with the functions of the Executive Presbyter and the Stated Clerk, the Executive Presbyter and the Stated Clerk meet with the Commission on Ministry and serve as resources as needed.

Each team of the Commission on Ministry will develop the necessary resources to fulfill their functions. These documents must be approved by the Commission on Ministry. These documents, attached as appendices to this manual, will be updated as necessary by the presbytery staff, upon approval of the Commission on Ministry. The presbytery staff maintains files on congregations, teaching elders, commissioned ruling elders, etc. The Commission on Ministry has access to these files through the COM Chair, and may have the opportunity to provide information to be placed in the file.

SECTION 3 TRANSITIONS TEAM

The Transitions Task Force works in conjunction with sessions, teaching elders, and congregations through training, resources, and support. The Transitions Task Force

3. recommends approval and dissolution of pastoral positions;
4. assists congregations without installed pastors in obtaining leadership, recommending the appointments of moderators of sessions without installed pastors;
5. approves Ministry Information Forms;
6. approves temporary pastoral relationships, including contracts and terms of call;
7. approves commissioned ruling elder relationships, including contracts, responsibilities, and terms of call;
