

Presbytery of Middle Tennessee
Commissioned Ruling Elder Training and Oversight Protocol
Approved by the Commission on Ministry
September 8, 2015

Role of Commissioned Ruling Elder

The Book of Order (G-2.1001) says: When a presbytery, in consultation with the session or other responsible committee, determines that its strategy for mission requires it, the presbytery may authorize a ruling elder to be commissioned to limited pastoral service as assigned by the presbytery. A ruling elder so designated may be commissioned to serve in a validated ministry of the presbytery.

Presbytery in its commission may authorize the ruling elder to do any or all of the following:

- Moderate the session of the congregation to which he or she is commissioned
- Administer the Sacraments
- Officiate at marriages where permitted by state law
- Have a voice in meetings of presbytery
- Vote in presbytery meetings, such vote to be counted as a ruling elder for purposes of parity

This commission shall also specify the term of service, which shall not exceed three years, but shall be renewable. The presbytery shall review the commission at least annually.

Training and Oversight

All candidates will participate in the following in conjunction with their home church pastor, session and/or the Committee on Ministry:

- Mentoring
- Collaboration
- Connection
- Continuing education

Process

1. When a ruling elder expresses interest in becoming a Commissioned Ruling Elder, he/she is directed to meet with his/her pastor and session regarding their support.
2. The pastor and session are asked to respond to this request and submit a letter of support regarding the candidate's application.
3. The candidate is also asked to fill out an application form (attached) and submit it to the Committee on Ministry.
4. A conversation will be held with the person or persons who signed the endorsement for the candidate prior to the candidate having a conversation with a representative of the COM.
5. The candidate will initiate a conversation with a representative of the COM prior to beginning study.
6. The candidate is directed to the University of Dubuque Theological Seminary (UDTS), or other PCUSA-related distance learning program designed specifically for training ruling elders for commissioned service, and approved in advance by the COM.

7. The pastor of the candidate's home church will serve as the candidate's mentor; if the candidate's home church does not have a pastor, the candidate will meet with the Pastoral Care Team to discuss the program, and the Pastoral Care Team will assign a mentor.
8. The mentor and candidate will meet a minimum of two times a year to review the progress of the candidate, and to encourage him/ her in the process.
9. When the candidate has completed the educational requirements, and has a call to serve a congregation, he/she contacts the COM Examinations Task Force to schedule an examination. Documentation of the educational requirements, along with information regarding the call, is provided to the Examinations Task Force. Upon successful completion of the examination, the candidate is commissioned by the Presbytery to particular pastoral service as indicated in the call. A mentor will be appointed for the Commissioned Ruling Elder.
10. If the candidate has completed all educational requirements but does not have a call, an examination can still be scheduled (providing documentation of the educational requirements) in order for the ruling elder to be added to the pulpit supply list.
