SECTION ONE
GUIDING PRINCIPLES

The Presbytery of Middle Tennessee is grounded in its purpose to be faithful in its call to honor and serve our Triune God. The Presbytery's operations are rooted in its mission to proclaim the gospel of Jesus Christ in word and deed, to support the ministers of the Word and sacrament and ruling elders, and to build up the churches and ministries of the Presbyterian Church (U.S.A.) in Middle Tennessee. As specific contexts for ministry change and as we grow in clarity about ways God may be calling us, we commit to these guiding principles:

- Live in purposeful community, cultivating relationships of trust and love, fortified by honesty, transparency, and mutual accountability.
- Model inclusivity and accessibility, being especially attentive and welcoming to groups or persons who experience marginalization from our structure, operations, or practices.
- Engage collaboratively, as valued partners, inviting diverse voices to be heard and crucial conversations to be framed by mutual respect.
- Welcome, consider, and support creative innovations, including technology, in ministry and mission aligned with the Presbytery's mission, values, and vision.
- Speak, act, organize, and advocate for social justice, focused on dismantling structural racism and eradicating systemic poverty.
- Invest in congregational vitality by providing opportunities and committing resources for leadership excellence, mutual support, and church transformation.
- Express gratitude and amplify generosity for the abundant gifts from God and the dedicated stewardship of our churches, ministries, and their leaders and members.
- Adopt practices and policies which further the overall health and well-being of the Presbytery as we commit to protect the fragility of our planet.

"The mission of God in Christ gives shape and substance to the life and work of the Church" (Book of Order, F-1.01). More than as an institution to maintain or a corporation to preserve, we identify as a community of believers in Jesus Christ and as disciples called to follow Him. This Mission and Operations Manual derives its value and purpose as we work to discern and boldly live out God's mission in Middle Tennessee.
